

CHRISTIAN EVEN'S WATCH

Published Since 2010

Vol. 56 No. 84 November Edition, 2024 . ISSN: 2659 -0867

Price N2000.00

Laughter 2024:
"The Almighty God"

A Celebration of Unwavering
Faith and Miracles

Pastor
Nick Medo-Uwa
General Overseer, PCM

RHEMA 2024 CONVENTION: RAYER, INSPIRING TESTIMONIES, PROPHETIC EXCELLENCE, MIRACLES) WITH
PROPHET DR. ANENE NWACHUKWU

"Celebrating the Enduring Legacy of Cherubim and Seraphim Church's Founding Father"

Baba Aladura
M.I.O. Erebi-Ebahor JP

"Carrying the Torch of
St. Moses Orimolade:
Baba Aladura M.I.O. Erebi-Ebahor JP
and His Eminence
Vice Baba Aladura J.O.A. Oladapo JP
Lead the Way"

His Eminence Vice Baba
Aladura J.O.A. Oladapo JP

Serving God in Uniform: An Exclusive Interview with MWO Monday Riye, Elder Harrison and Pastor Emma Shimbe (JP)

MWO Monday Riye
Lagos State Coordinator of
Nigerian Military Fellowship

Elder (Dr.) EJ Harrison
National Coordinator
NCCF

Pastor
Emma Shimbe (JP), Coordinator General
Nigeria Immigration Christian Fellowship

THE CHANNEL OF GOD'S GENERALS

Watch
ORACLE TV
on Mytv Cable
24 Hours Everyday

Also showing on other social media platforms

RHEMA INT'L PROPHETIC CENTRE,
Km 10, LASU-Igando Road,
Church-Pole Bus Stop,
Beside Iba Police Station,
Iba Lagos, Nigeria.

For enquiries, pls call:

Tel: 08033007503, 08023849998

IN RHEMA NO SHAKING

YOU CAN FOLLOW ORACLETV

LIVE STREAMING ON SOCIAL MEDIA

Facebook - rhematv television
Youtube - dr.anene nwachukwu

DOWNLOAD OUR MOBILE APP
VIA GOOGLE STORE

CREW

Felix Mbata

*Publisher /
-Editor-in-Chief*

Reporters:

Johnson Okoro,
Paul Obinna,
Rose Adeleja.

Computer Operators / Graphics

Mercy Olawatosin,
Owolabi O. Adijat

The Unique Model Magazine is a publication of

FECOS MULTI-MEDIA SERVICES

No. 47, Adekitan Street, Mushin, Lagos.

Tel: 080 30527964, 090 72810358.

Email: theuniquemodel@yahoo.com

WEBSITE:

www.theuniquemodelmagazine.com.ng

MISSION STATEMENT

Publisher
EVANGELIST
FELIX MBATA

Christian Events Watch is an omnibus that specializes in documentation of life and time of anointed men of God, churches and other Christian related bodies.

Publisher's Note

THE SIGNIFICANCE OF ANNUAL THANKSGIVING SERVICE IN CHURCHES

Annual Thanksgiving services are a cherished tradition in many churches, offering a sacred opportunity for congregants to come together and express gratitude to God for His blessings and provisions. This joyous celebration serves as a powerful reminder of the importance of thankfulness in our spiritual lives.

Necessities of Annual Thanksgiving Service:

1. Fosters Gratitude: Encourages believers to reflect on God's goodness and provision, cultivating a spirit of gratitude.
2. Strengthens Faith: Remembers God's faithfulness, reinforcing trust and confidence in His sovereignty.
3. Unites Congregation: Brings members together, promoting unity and fellowship.
4. Testimonies and Praise: Provides a platform for sharing testimonies and offering praise, inspiring others.
5. Renews Hope: Rekindles optimism and faith in God's plans.
6. Demonstrates Humility: Acknowledges dependence on God.
7. Biblical Foundation: Rooted in scripture (Psalm 100:4-5, 1 Thessalonians 5:18).

Benefits to Individuals and Communities:

1. Spiritual Growth: Deepens relationship with God.
2. Emotional Healing: Comforts and uplifts.
3. Community Building: Fosters connections.
4. Inspiration: Motivates.
5. Accountability: Encourages self-reflection.

Incorporating Thanksgiving into Church Life:

1. Special Services: Host annual or seasonal thanksgiving services.
2. Testimony Sharing: Invite members to share testimonies.
3. Prayer and Praise: Incorporate thanksgiving prayers and songs.
4. Community Outreach: Extend gratitude to the wider community.
5. Scripture Reflection: Study biblical teachings on thanksgiving.

By embracing annual Thanksgiving services, churches cultivate a culture of gratitude, strengthening faith and unity among congregants.

May these celebrations inspire us to live thankful lives, honoring God's goodness and provision.

Laughter 2024: "The Almighty God" A Celebration of Unwavering Faith and Miracles

Renowned International Pastor Nick Medo-Uwa Leads Pentecostal Canaanland Mission (PCM) in Triumphant Praise and Worship.

Lagos, Nigeria - The highly anticipated Laughter 2024 celebration at Pentecostal Canaanland Mission (PCM) was an electrifying atmosphere of joy, thanksgiving, and fulfillment of prayers. Under the visionary leadership of Pastor Nick Medo-Uwa, PCM has become a beacon of hope and spiritual transformation, drawing thousands from diverse Christian denominations.

A Reflection on 24 Years of Ministry

Pastor Medo-Uwa reflected on his 24-year missionary journey, highlighting countless exploits locally and internationally, attributing them to "The Almighty God." He shared his covenant with God in 1994, where God appeared in his dream, poured oil on his head, and instructed him to:

1. Win souls and sustain them globally.
2. Remain faithful to his wife, who would support PCM.
3. Perform miracles and prophecies through him.
4. Remain humble.

Sermon: "The Almighty God"

From Daniel 3:17-25, Pastor Medo-Uwa emphasized that "Almighty God" is not just a title but a demonstration of God's mighty strength and power. He referenced Abraham's encounter with God, highlighting God's omnipotence and omnipresence.

Key Takeaways

1. God is able to deliver believers from any challenge.
2. The fire of economic meltdown will not affect believers.
3. God's power surpasses human understanding.

Testimonies and Miracles

Pastor Medo-Uwa shared testimonies of healings, business breakthroughs, and uncountable miracles experienced through PCM. He assured the congregation that:

1. God will answer their prayers.
2. They will enter the new year with joy.

Conclusion

The Laughter 2024 celebration was a resounding success, attributed to God's support and the tireless efforts of Pastor Medo-Uwa, PCM Choir, Mercy Chinwo, and other ministers. As the congregation departed, they carried with them the assurance of Almighty God's mighty power and presence in their lives.

About Pentecostal Canaanland Mission (PCM)

Pentecostal Canaanland Mission (PCM) is a vibrant, Bible-believing church committed to spreading the Gospel and transforming lives. With branches locally and internationally, PCM continues to grow under Pastor Nick Medo-Uwa's leadership.

Contact Information

Pentecostal Canaanland Mission (PCM)
26/28 Adewunmi Abudu Street,
Off Osolo Way, Opposite Mopson Pharmaceutical,
By Bustop Ajao Estate, Lagos.
Phone: [08023063895, 08022617837]
Get inspired and stay updated on upcoming events!
International Thanksgiving Service 8th December, 2024

PCM LAUGHTER 2024:

Pictures Speak

PCM LAUGHTER 2024: Pictures Speak

LAUGHTER 2024: A Joyful Celebration of Salvation and Transformation at Pentecostal Canaanland Mission

The highly anticipated Laughter 2024 ceremony took place from October 20th to 27th, 2024, at Pentecostal Canaanland Mission (PCM) in Lagos. Attendees from various churches gathered to experience the life-changing power of God through Pastor Nick Medo-Uwa's ministry.

A Celebration of Unity and Faith

Laughter 2024 brought together people from diverse backgrounds, united in their quest for spiritual growth and renewal. With powerful performances by Mercy Chinwo and PCM's choir, the event was a resounding success..

Testimonies of Transformation

We spoke with Hon. Elder Emmanuel Orji and Minister Austin Okhue, who shared their inspiring stories.

Hon. Elder Emmanuel Orji

Former Local Government Chairman and devoted PCM member

- "I've been attending PCM for 24 years; God's tangible presence keeps me here."
- "Laughter has brought salvation, changed lives from poverty to greatness, restored broken families, and brought healing."
- "Pastor Nick is a genuine man of God; his prophecies come to pass."

- "My advice to new members is to continue worshipping with PCM and stay focused on God."
- "I advise Pastor Nick to continue believing in God, never looking back, and staying focused."

Minister Austin Okhue
Gospel minister from Edo State

- "Today's service was awesome, with transformational messages and more souls won for Christ."
- "Laughter keeps me in PCM; it's a program that brings blessings and testimonies."
- "Pastor Nick is a unique man of God; I advise him to continue doing exploits for God and supporting the less privileged."
- "I joined PCM 25 years ago; God changed my life from comedy to gospel ministry."

Pastor Nick Medo-Uwa's Ministry

Through Laughter 2024 and other initiatives, Pastor Nick Medo-Uwa's ministry inspires transformation:

- Empowering teachings and sermons
 - Compassionate outreach to the less privileged
 - Miracles and healings
 - Leadership development
 - Interdenominational collaboration
- About Laughter 2024
- Theme: "The Almighty God"

The Laughter 2024 celebration was a testament to the transformative power of faith and community.

RHEMA 2024 CONVENTION: PRAYERS, INSPIRING TESTIMONIES, PROPHETIC EXCELLENCE, MIRACLES WITH PROPHET DR. ANENE NWACHUKWU

In an era of spiritual seeking and uncertainty, Prophet Dr. Anene Nwachukwu stands out as a shining exemplar of divine guidance and wisdom. As the revered General Overseer of Rhema Deliverance Ministry International, he has been instrumental in transforming countless lives through his prophetic gifts, compassionate heart, and unwavering commitment to serving humanity. We had the privilege of sitting down with this extraordinary leader to discuss his ministry, vision, and the impact of his life's work.

A Resounding Success: The 2024 Convention

Prophet Dr. Anene Nwachukwu expressed heartfelt gratitude to the Almighty for the phenomenal success of the 2024 convention, which was nothing short of extraordinary. The theme, "God of Mercy, Have Mercy on Us" (Romans 9:15-16), resonated deeply with attendees, emphasizing the urgent need for divine mercy in these challenging times.

Transformative Expectations

The esteemed Prophet hopes that the convention will be a catalyst for profound transformation in the lives of attendees, ushering in massive testimonies and tangible manifestations of God's boundless mercy.

DR. ANENE NWACHUKWU
Capacity Oracle Tv. Worldwide

Symbol of Divine Protection: The Handkerchief Mantle

Prophet Dr. Anene Nwachukwu graciously shared handkerchiefs with the congregation, imbuing them with the power of divine protection and God's omnipresent guidance.

A Legacy of Inspiration

His late father, Bishop Dr. Arthur Nwachukwu, was Prophet Dr. Anene Nwachukwu's greatest inspiration and mentor, instilling in him the values of faith, resilience, and compassionate leadership.

A Ministry of Distinction

Rhema Deliverance Ministry International stands out for its unwavering focus on prophecy, deliverance, and teaching, setting it apart as a beacon of hope in a world navigating spiritual darkness.

National Impact and Renewed Hope

Regarding President Ahmed Tinubu's administration, Prophet Dr. Anene Nwachukwu expressed fervent hope that God will intervene to alleviate the suffering of Nigerians, restoring the nation to a path of prosperity and peace.

Compassionate Outreach

The ministry's "Stomach Infrastructure Department" charity organization has been a lifeline for countless individuals, providing sustenance, educational support, and financial assistance to those in dire need.

Empowering the Next Generation

Prophet Dr. Anene Nwachukwu prioritizes youth ministry, recognizing the immense potential of young people to shape the future and propel the ministry's mission forward.

Authenticity and Integrity

He attributes his ability to deepen followers' faith to his unwavering authenticity, integrity, and consistency in word and deed, demonstrating a remarkable model of spiritual leadership.

Global Expansion

Rhema Deliverance Ministry International has expanded its reach to London, with Prophet Dr. Anene Nwachukwu's wife serving as a dedicated pastor.

Discerning True Prophets

In a world where false prophets often masquerade as genuine, Prophet Dr. Anene Nwachukwu offers sage advice: genuine prophets are characterized by humility, wisdom, and a deep connection with the divine, whereas impostors seek self-aggrandizement and fleeting attention.

A Lasting Legacy

Prophet Dr. Anene Nwachukwu's selfless dedication to serving humanity has etched an indelible mark on the spiritual landscape, illuminating the path for countless seekers of truth and hope. His ministry will undoubtedly continue to flourish, inspiring generations to come.

Pictures speak

“Carrying the Torch of St. Moses Orimolade: Baba Aladura M.I.O. Erebi-Ebahor JP and His Eminence Vice Baba Aladura J.O.A. Oladapo JP Lead the Way”

“Celebrating the Enduring Legacy of Cherubim and Seraphim Church's Founding Father”

Baba Aladura M.I.O. Erebi-Ebahor JP and His Eminence Vice Baba Aladura J.O.A. Oladapo JP

As the Cherubim and Seraphim Church prepares to celebrate its centenary anniversary in 2025, the leadership of Baba Aladura M.I.O. Erebi-Ebahor JP and His Eminence Vice Baba Aladura J.O.A. Oladapo JP continues to inspire hope and faith among its members. Their tireless efforts to maintain the legacy of the church's founding father, St. Moses Orimolade Tunolase, have yielded remarkable fruits.

Under their guidance, the church has experienced unprecedented growth, peace, and orderliness. Their commitment to evangelism and the development of branches worldwide has been unwavering. The theme of the 2024 Annual General Conference, "Embracing one another as Christ embraces us" (Romans 15:7), aptly reflects their vision for unity and love among members. Baba Aladura M.I.O. Erebi-Ebahor JP's heartfelt message at the conference emphasized the importance of gratitude, love, and unity. He urged members to continue embracing one another as Christ does, echoing the church's founding principles.

His Eminence Vice Baba Aladura J.O.A. Oladapo JP's address highlighted the significance of the centenary anniversary and the need for members to contribute to the church's growth. His call to action resonated with delegates, inspiring renewed commitment to the church's mission.

Their leadership has:

- Fostered unity and cooperation among members
- Promoted evangelism and branch development
- Encouraged spiritual growth and faith development
- Preserved the legacy of St. Moses Orimolade Tunolase

As the Cherubim and Seraphim Church looks to the future, Baba Aladura M.I.O. Erebi-Ebahor JP and His Eminence Vice Baba Aladura J.O.A. Oladapo JP remain steadfast in their dedication to the church's founding principles. Their selfless service has earned them the respect and admiration of members worldwide.

"We are grateful for their leadership and vision," said a conference delegate. "They have inspired us to deepen our faith and commitment to the church."

As the church prepares for its centenary celebrations, the legacy of St. Moses Orimolade Tunolase shines brighter than ever. Baba Aladura M.I.O. Erebi-Ebahor JP and His Eminence Vice Baba Aladura J.O.A. Oladapo JP are ensuring that the torch of faith, love, and unity continues to burn brightly for generations to come.

ORDINATION

Unity and Progress: Insights from the 70th Annual Conference of Hotonu Mother Church

The Eternal Sacred Order of the Cherubim and Seraphim (Hotonu Conference) recently held its 70th Annual Conference at the Moses Orimolade Cathedral in Egbe, Lagos. Superintendent General Apostle Dr. V.O. Bambeke, Chairman of the Organizing Committee, shared his thoughts on the conference's significance, leadership, and challenges. Exclusive Interview

Christian Events Watch: Congratulations on the successful conference. Please introduce yourself?

Dr. Bambeke: I'm Superintendent General Apostle Dr. V.O. Bambeke, Chairman of the Organizing Committee of this Annual Conference.

Fostering Unity and Growth

CEW: What attracts congregations from different states to Hotonu Mother Church?

Dr. Bambeke: Our stature and understanding make this Annual General Conference a must-attend for all legitimate and responsible members. It's a compulsory event for unity, reflection, and forging a new way forward.

Secret to Success

CEW: What makes the event successful every year?

Dr. Bambeke: We introduce new elements, like wristbands and tags with Moses Orimolade's picture, to foster unity and excitement. It's a novelty and a symbol of our bond.

Leadership and Hierarchy

CEW: Who is in charge of Hotonu Mother Church?

Dr. Bambeke: His Eminence Vice Baba Aladura J.A.I. Oladepo (JP) is the head. Everyone reports to him, and he leads the Executive Committee and decision-making processes.

Interfaith Relations

CEW: What's your relationship with Pentecostal and Catholic churches?

Dr. Bambeke: We have a cordial relationship, often inviting each other to events. We're in the Lord together.

Appreciation and Gratitude

CEW: Words of appreciation to attendees?

Dr. Bambeke: I'm grateful for their presence, which makes this event worthwhile. I pray God blesses them and their churches.

Challenges and the Way Forward

CEW: What challenges does Hotonu Mother Church face hosting this conference?

Dr. Bambeke: Our main challenge is getting everyone to attend. We appeal to those lagging behind to join the mainstream.

About Hotonu Mother Church

- Founded by St. Moses Orimolade Orumlake Tamoseun

- Headquarters: Moses Orimolade Cathedral, 1-3 Orimolade Street, Egbe, Lagos

- Part of Christian Association of Nigeria (CAN) under Indigenous Churches of Nigeria

Unveiling the Cherubim and Seraphim Church: Unity, Doctrine, and Legacy

The 70th Annual General Conference of Hotonu Mother Church recently took place in Lagos, bringing together districts and branches from across Nigeria. Christian Events Watch Magazine had the privilege of interviewing Superintendent General Apostle Prophet Dr. J.A. Esan JP, Chairman of the Central Working Committee for the conference. Exclusive Interview

Christian Events Watch: Congratulations on the successful conference. Please introduce yourself.

Dr. Esan: My name is Superintendent General Apostle Prophet Dr. J.A. Esan JP, Chairman Central Working Committee for the conference.

Unity and Purpose

CEW: What brings various districts and branches to Hotonu Mother Church today?

Dr. Esan: This is our Annual General Conference, where we discuss church matters, challenges, and the way forward.

Clarifying the Doctrine

CEW: Some churches question the Christian doctrine of Cherubim and Seraphim. What's your take?

Dr. Esan: We're Pentecostal, emphasizing spiritualism. We're recognized by Christian Association of Nigeria (CAN) under Indigenous Churches of Nigeria.

Founding and Legacy

CEW: Who founded Cherubim and Seraphim, and what's his legacy?

Dr. Esan: St. Moses Orimolade Tumonon founded the church, establishing its unique spiritual path.

Leadership Structure
CEW: How many Baba Aladura are in C&S in Nigeria?

Dr. Esan: We have over 50 Baba Aladura and Iya Aladura, each heading constituent churches with multiple branches.

Appreciation and Gratitude

CEW: How do you appreciate members attending the conference?

Dr. Esan: I commend their dedication, considering transport costs, time, and risks. Their presence is invaluable.

Upcoming Programs

CEW: What's next for the church before year-end?

Dr. Esan: After this conference, individual churches will observe harvest. This conference is our final major program.

About Hotonu Mother Church

- Founded by St. Moses Orimolade Tumonon
- Headquarters: Moses Orimolade Cathedral, 1-3 Orimolade Street, Egbe, Lagos
- Part of Christian Association of Nigeria (CAN) under Indigenous Churches of Nigeria

UNITY AND EVANGELISM: CHERUBIM AND SERAPHIM CHURCH'S ENDURING LEGACY

The Eternal Sacred Order of the Cherubim and Seraphim (Hotonu Conference) recently held its 2024 Annual General Conference at the Moses Orimolade Cathedral in Egbe, Lagos. Superintendent General Apostle Christopher Agbola Bayode, General Secretary of Hotonu Mother Church, shared insights into the conference's purpose, the church's achievements, and its enduring legacy.

Exclusive Interview

Christian Events Watch: Good evening, sir. Please introduce yourself.

Apostle Bayode: I'm Superintendent General Apostle Christopher Agbola Bayode, General Secretary of Hotonu Mother Church of the Eternal Sacred Order of the Cherubim and Seraphim, founded by Moses Orimolade Orumlake Tamoseau.

CEW: What prompted this conference, and when did you start holding it in this cathedral?

Apostle Bayode: We've held conferences here for over two decades, since moving from Lagos. We started in 1954, but not in this cathedral. It began as the Lagos District Council, which metamorphosed into Hotonu General Conference, with four initial churches.

Fostering Unity and Growth

CEW: What are the benefits of this 2024 conference to the Church?

Apostle Bayode: The conference promotes unity, discussing developments in branches, districts, and territories. It brings together members from Nigeria and overseas, fostering oneness in Christ.

CEW: What are your achievements so far?

Apostle Bayode: We've achieved unity through this conference, spreading its impact to our branches and correcting societal ills.

Understanding Unification and Eternal

CEW: What's the difference between Unification and Eternal in Cherubim and Seraphim church names?

Apostle Bayode: Eternal Sacred Order (Reg. No. 316) was founded by Moses Orimolade. Unification was established later to bring together breakaway churches, promoting unity and avoiding unnecessary rivalry.

Challenges and the Way Forward

CEW: What led to some Cherubim and Seraphim churches diverging from Moses Orimolade's doctrine?

Apostle Bayode: Human differences and desire for leadership led to proliferation. Our core mandate remains evangelism, as emphasized by Moses Orimolade.

CEW: Advice to youths on maintaining the doctrine?

Apostle Bayode: Parents should teach children the way of the Lord. We must correct noticed errors and remain steadfast.

Support and Appreciation

CEW: What challenges face the church, and how can people support?

Apostle Bayode: We need members' steadfastness and parental guidance. The world's moral decline concerns us.

CEW: Words of appreciation to attendees from other states?

Apostle Bayode: I thank God for their lives and commitment. Their presence shows interest in our mission and unity.

Building Unity and Faith: An Exclusive Interview with Special Apostle Daniel Omume Dapo

The 70th Annual General Conference of Hotonu Mother Church, held at Moses Orimolade Cathedral in Egbe, Lagos, featured transformative lectures from renowned speakers. Christian Events Watch Magazine had the privilege of interviewing Special Apostle Daniel Omume Dapo.

Exclusive Interview

Christian Events Watch: Congratulations on your impactful lecture. Please introduce yourself.

Special Apostle Dapo: My name is Special Apostle Daniel Omume Dapo from Jehovah Christ the House Church.

Conference Inspiration

CEW: What inspired the conference and your lecture?

Special Apostle Dapo: The conference addresses issues affecting the Cherubim and Seraphim Church worldwide. My lecture aimed to build and encourage people to live a Christian life.

Lecture Summary

CEW: Can you summarize your lecture?

Special Apostle Dapo: My lecture emphasized unity, citing Jesus' teaching that He and the Father are one. We must come together, work together, and have faith.

Membership Requirements

CEW: What are the requirements to join Cherubim and Seraphim Church?

Special Apostle Dapo: One must hear the gospel, believe, and be baptized by immersion.

Personal Journey

CEW: How long have you been a member?

Special Apostle Dapo: 17 years.

Staying Committed

CEW: What keeps you committed?

Special Apostle Dapo: God transformed my life, providing what I sought. I decided to stay, making C&S my final stop.

Advice for Seekers

CEW: What advice do you have for members lacking faith, visiting other churches?

Special Apostle Dapo: Faith comes first. Spiritual adultery is moving between churches. Believe in God, your pastor, and prosper.

Appreciation

CEW: Words of appreciation to your audience?

Special Apostle Dapo: I thank everyone for attending, leaving comfort zones, and listening attentively. We're doing God's work together.

About Hotonu Mother Church

- Founded by St. Moses Orimolade Tumonan
- Headquarters: Moses Orimolade Cathedral, 1-3 Orimolade Street, Egbe, Lagos
- Part of Christian Association of Nigeria (CAN) under Indigenous Churches of Nigeria

Thanksgiving Pictures

Sunday School Pictures

Pictures Speak

Pictures Speak

SHOT ON A56
itel DUAL CAMERA

NCCF 21ST PRAYER CONCERT: SYNERGIZING FAITH AND SERVICE

Unveiling the Vision and Impact of Nigeria Customs Christian

Fellowship

The Nigeria Customs Christian Fellowship (NCCF) recently held its 21st Prayer Concert, a momentous occasion that brought together Christian officers from various agencies, including the Nigeria Immigration Service, Civil Defence, and Nigeria Military Christian Fellowship. This year's theme, "God's Battle Axe," emphasized the importance of spiritual warfare and the indwelling of the Holy Spirit.

Exclusive Interview with Elder Dr. Harrison, National Coordinator, NCCF

In a candid conversation with Christian Events Watch Magazine, Elder Dr. Harrison shared insights into the NCCF's vision, achievements, and impact.

A Conversation of Faith and Service

Christian Events Watch Magazine: Congratulations on the successful 21st Prayer Concert. How do you feel about today's event?

Elder Dr. Harrison: I'm grateful to God for the success of the event. The climate, attendance, and guests were all favorable.

Spiritual Warfare and the Indwelling of the Holy Spirit

Christian Events Watch Magazine: What inspired the theme, "God's Battle Axe"?

Elder Dr. Harrison: We chose this theme to emphasize the importance of being God's instrument in spiritual warfare, using the indwelling of the Holy Spirit to fight against enemies.

Transforming Service through Spiritual Growth

Christian Events Watch Magazine: How does the Prayer Concert impact Nigeria Customs Service's mission?

Elder Dr. Harrison: The concert aims to raise Godly people for a Godly service, promoting spiritual growth and professional excellence.

A Legacy of Faith and Service

Christian Events Watch Magazine: What sets this year's concert apart from previous ones?

Elder Dr. Harrison: This year's attendance was higher, and the impact will reach a larger space. We expect better change in behavior, spiritual life, and professional service delivery.

Interagency Collaboration and Unity

Christian Events Watch Magazine: Why invite other paramilitary groups?

Elder Dr. Harrison: We believe in cooperation and learning from one another. Our non-denominational fellowship allows everyone to participate and benefit.

Achievements and Impact

Christian Events Watch Magazine: What are NCCF's achievements in 21 years?

Elder Dr. Harrison: We've established new fellowships, built chapels, and increased membership. Our annual reports detail our growth.

Giving Back to Society

Christian Events Watch Magazine: How does NCCF give back to society?

Elder Dr. Harrison: We publish a magazine, visit orphanages, and provide charitable support. We also offer prayers and material gifts to members in need.

Praying for Leaders

Christian Events Watch Magazine: Why pray for leaders?

Elder Dr. Harrison: Scripture instructs us to pray for our leaders. We pray for their guidance and wisdom.

A Message of Appreciation

Christian Events Watch Magazine: What message do you have for attendees and stakeholders?

Elder Dr. Harrison: I express gratitude to all who attended, leaders, friends, and guests. May God bless and favor you.

Conclusion

The NCCF 21st Prayer Concert was a resounding success, demonstrating the power of unity and spiritual growth. As Elder Dr. Harrison emphasized, "We must remain God's Battle Axe to dismantle every device or attack that comes our way."

Serving God in Uniform: An Exclusive Interview with MWO Riye, Lagos Coordinator of Nigerian Military Christian Fellowship

In a heart-to-heart conversation with Christian Events Watch, MWO Monday Riye, the Lagos State Coordinator of the Nigerian Military Christian Fellowship (NMCF), shares his inspiring journey, lessons from the Nigerian Customs Christian Fellowship's 21st Prayer Concert, and his vision for NMCF. As a dedicated servant of God in uniform, MWO Monday highlights the importance of evangelism, Godly living, and winning souls for Christ.

MWO Monday Riye
Lagos State Coordinator of
Nigerian Military Fellowship

Christian Events Watch: Can you introduce yourself to our readers?

MWO Monday: By the grace of the Lord, my name is MWO Monday Riye. I hail from Nassarawa State and serve under the Nigerian Air Force Ikeja Unit. I am also the Lagos State Coordinator of Nigerian Military Christian Fellowship.

Christian Events Watch: When did you emerge as the Lagos State Coordinator of Nigerian Military Christian Fellowship?

MWO Monday: As a young soldier, I joined the service and worked with senior committed Christian officers, which introduced me to NMCF. Since then, I've been fully involved for 20-22 years, holding various responsibilities. Recently, I was elected as the Lagos State Coordinator.

Christian Events Watch: What are the entry requirements to be a member of NMCF?

MWO Monday: The first entry requirement is being born again, a lover of Jesus Christ. Secondly, you must be a military or paramilitary personnel or dependent.

Christian Events Watch: Why did you attend the Nigerian Customs Christian Fellowship 21st Prayer Concert?

MWO Monday: I attended as a representative of NMCF and to support the body of Christ. The Assistant National Secretary of NMCF is a member of NCCF, and I was invited.

Christian Events Watch: What did you learn from the NCCF 21st Prayer Concert?

MWO Monday: I learned spiritual tactics in prayer and was inspired to reshape my prayer life.

Christian Events Watch: As NMCF's State Coordinator, what's your advice to military and paramilitary personnel?

MWO Monday: Evangelize Jesus Christ, live a Godly life, and win souls for Christ.

Christian Events Watch: How do you respond to those who doubt Godly men can be in uniform?

MWO Monday: We must prove them wrong; we are agents of God in uniform, attracting believers and unbelievers to God.

Christian Events Watch: What plans do you have before the end of the year?

MWO Monday: We're hosting the South West Zonal Congress on November 8-9 and an end-of-year thanksgiving and hospital outreach in December.

Christian Events Watch: Who's invited to these programs?

MWO Monday: Everyone; we want to use uniform men to capture people for Christ.

Christian Events Watch: Are uniform men agents of God?

MWO Monday: Yes, as children of God, we represent Him in our conduct and behavior.

Conclusion:

MWO Monday's testimony serves as a powerful reminder that faith and service can go hand-in-hand. As he continues to lead NMCF's Lagos Chapter, his dedication to spreading God's word and inspiring fellow uniformed personnel will undoubtedly bear fruit.

Interview

NCCF 21ST PRAYER CONCERT: FOSTERING INTER-AGENCY CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

Exclusive Interview with Pastor Emma Shimbe (JP), Coordinator General,

Nigeria Immigration Christian Fellowship
The Nigeria Customs Christian Fellowship (NCCF) recently held its 21st Prayer Concert at the Customs Training College, Ikeja, Lagos. The event brought together Christian officers from various agencies, including the Nigeria Immigration Service. We had the privilege of speaking with Pastor Emma Shimbe (JP), Coordinator General of Nigeria Immigration Christian Fellowship (NICF), who graced the occasion.

Building Bridges of Faith

The NCCF 21st Prayer Concert served as a platform to strengthen inter-agency Christian fellowship and collaboration. Pastor Shimbe's attendance underscored the importance of unity among Christian officers in the public service.

A Conversation with Pastor Emma Shimbe (JP)

Christian Events Watch Magazine: Sir, thank you for joining us today. Can you introduce yourself to our readers?

Pastor Emma Shimbe (JP): I'm Pastor Emma Shimbe (JP), Coordinator General of Nigeria Immigration Christian Fellowship.

Christian Events Watch Magazine: What inspired your attendance?

Pastor Emma Shimbe (JP): NCCF is not new to us in Immigration Christian Fellowship. They have been very supportive over the years. Back then, when we had a Course in Customs Training College Gorun Dutse, Kano, they gave us all the support we (NICF) needed. So, apart from sister agency, we are together in faith. At MMIA, we have fellowship in same venue.

And with our General Overseer, Dr DK Olukoya being the Guest Minister, you can be sure all of us will like to come Christian Events Watch Magazine: What is the primary vision and objectives of Nigeria Immigration Christian Fellowship?

Pastor Emma Shimbe (JP): Our primary vision is to make every Christian officer a worthy ambassador of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Christian Events Watch Magazine: What lessons did you take away from the NCCF prayer concert?

Pastor Emma Shimbe (JP): Good timing and early invitation to Retired brethren and most importantly our guests ministers.

Christian Events Watch Magazine: How long has NICF been established?

Pastor Emma Shimbe (JP): NICF has been in existence over 3 decades but a formal structure was done in 2012. It's notable achievements includes, the Legal document or what we call Constitution of NICF, The Registration at Corporate Affairs Commission, establishment of Chapters in all commands and formations.

Christian Events Watch Magazine: What challenges does NICF face?

Pastor Emma Shimbe (JP): Distance barrier is a major challenge. We struggle to get colleagues from distant zones to attend meetings. We also need support to establish chapels in all formations.

Christian Events Watch Magazine: How many chapters does NICF have?

Pastor Emma Shimbe (JP): We have 32 chapters in Nigeria, with almost every state command having a chapter.

Christian Events Watch Magazine: Where are your Lagos chapters located?

Pastor Emma Shimbe (JP): Lagos State command Zone A Command, Ikoyi passport office, FESTAC passport office, MMIA command.

Christian Events Watch Magazine: What message do you have for NCCF?

Pastor Emma Shimbe (JP): They should keep sowing in the Vineyard of our LORD Jesus Christ. Together, we can lift the Kingdom of our dear Saviour higher in work place environment

A Call to Unity

The NCCF 21st Prayer Concert demonstrated the power of inter-agency Christian fellowship. As Pastor Shimbe emphasized, "Together, we can lift the kingdom of our Saviour higher, transforming the nation and making it a better place." We look forward to continued collaboration between NICF and NCCF.

Some pictures of NCCF 21st Prayer Concert at Customs Training College Ikeja, Lagos

CANADIAN INTERNATIONAL
SCHOOL LAGOS

The
BEST SCHOOL
IN LAGOS
STATE

BOARDING
FACILITIES AVAILABLE

SCHOOL
ADMISSION
IN PROGRESS

Don't miss this year's school registration to open the door to the best educational opportunities for your child.

REGISTER NOW

 08098900020

Email:
canadian_int.school@yahoo.com